Dive Friends Bonaire Holds Grand Opening Party at Dive Friends Dive Inn

Kralendijk, Bonaire, Netherlands Antilles, April 2, 2008

On Tuesday, April 1st, 2008, Dive Friends Bonaire officially opened their fourth, and newest, location on Bonaire, at Dive Inn. Celebrating with customers and friends from the island, managers Gerrie Fokke and Pascal de Meyer cut the ribbon and Dive Friends Dive Inn was born.

Dive Friends Bonaire now has locations at the Yellow Submarine facility on the north end of the oceanfront promenade, Hamlet Oasis at the north of the "hotel row", Port Bonaire, across from the airport, and at Dive Inn, at the southern area of the oceanfront promenade. Their customers may pick up or drop off tanks at any of their locations, making it very convenient for shore divers no matter where they plan to dive for the day. Additionally, a full menu of courses and boat diving is available for those divers who wish to do more during their dive trip.

To help celebrate the new facility with their customers, Dive Friends is offering a grand opening special during May and June, 2008. Any diver booking a six-day unlimited air dive package will receive it at the special price of $99.00 per person (sales tax not included), instead of the normal price of $114.00 per person. Additionally, each diver is then eligible for a free upgrade to Nitrox (32%), as well as a free guided dive to the Wreck of the Hilma Hooker. Advanced reservations are necessary to receive this special price, and the special is open to divers at any of Dive Friends Bonaire's four locations.
